

100TH ANNIVERSARY STAMP SERIES

PRODUCT TYPE

Postage, Stamp Design

CONCEPT

To commemorate the 100th Anniversary of the National Park Service, the United States Postal Service (USPS) will be issuing a horizontal strip of four se-tenant stamps, and through the Citizens' Stamp Advisory Committee (CSAC) has commissioned someone to design for them.

Design a unique and dynamic concept for the four stamp series while designing them based around the style of the designer, Erik Nitsche.

ABOUT ERIK NITSCHKE

He was a pioneer in the design of books, annual reports, and other printed material that relied on meticulous attention to the details of page composition, the elegance of simple type presentation, and the juxtaposition of elements on a page. His hallmarks were impeccably clear design, brilliant colors, smart typography, and an adherence to particular geometric foundations.
